

Online Workshop Report

Due to the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic worldwide national lockdown was ordered by the government. In order to utilize the lockdown period Code for Change brought a theme

“Other say work from home, Code for Change says learn from home” and has been involving the general members and executive body with webinars. Code for Change has been organizing online workshops including the workshops that has been as per in the calendar.

Code for Change organized the first online workshop on 14th of April, 2020 and has organized eight online workshops so far covering technical skills and also professional skills.

Report on Online Webinar

Presented By:
Code for Change
Youth in social Change

April-June, 2020

INTRODUCTION

The online workshops were organized on nine topics including various technical and professional skills. The topics included in the webinar were: Web Development with HTML, CSS and Bootstrap led by Mr. Suman Gaihre– Core Member of CFC and Mr. Sagar Bhandari- Treasurer of CFC Dang on 14th April, 2020; CV and Proposal Writing led by Mr. Prajwol Tiwari – Core Member of CFC on 16th April, 2020; Effective Communication and Learning led by Ms. Dollie Shah- Head of Public Relations and Events, AISEC in Kathmandu on 18th April 2020; Digital Marketing led by Mr. Prabodh Siwakoty – Founder and MD, Marching Ants Pvt Ltd on 19th April, 2020; Enhancing Writing led by Ms. Subhechha Bhandari– Fellow 2018-2020, Teach for Nepal on 20th April, 2020; Android Development for Beginners led by Mr. Santosh Lamsal – Advisory Board of CFC on 22nd April, 2020; Basic Python towards Machine Learning led by Nirajan Basnet- Full Stack Developer, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Germany on 26th April, 2020; Software Development with .NET Framework led by Mr. Amazed Sunar- Developer and MD, TechEva Innovation on 29th April, 2020; Blockchain led by Ashmita Manandhar- Project Lead, esatya on 6th May, 2020; UI/UX Design led by Binit Sharma- Founder, basobas.com on 3rd June, 2020. There was high number of participation in the webinars including the general members and executive body members from various parts of Nepal. The total number of participation in the online webinar organized was 352.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the online workshop was to deliver basic knowledge on various topics required for enhancing technical and professional skills required in the field.

PROCESS

The notice about the workshop was published in social media platforms about the time and date. The members were asked to fill the form of the workshop and the mail was sent regarding the information about the workshop. The webinar was organized through google meet.

RESULT

After the webinar the participants acknowledged the basics of various technical and professional skills.

REVIEWS AND RECOMMENDATION

The concept of online workshop is great as it stands out the workshops planned in the calendar along with the utilization of members providing them a learning platform.

CONCLUSION

The online workshop was very interactive and the feedbacks from the participants and also the trainer were positive.